Description

The sycamore tree is known for its extensive root systems, which anchors hillsides and islands, helping it endure floods and erosive forces. Which is why we named our 5oz water repellent bag "the Sycamore". All belongings in this bag will keep dry as the special oil based coating provides a protective layer that water runs off. To note the coating can also be reduced and removed if the bag is washed over time and is also fully recyclable. We give to you "The Sycamore"
