Description

Beech trees are large, broadleaf deciduous trees known for their distinctive smooth bark and wavy-edged leaves. It is a dominant member of its species due to its dense, tiered canopy that can grow up to 40 meters tall, allowing it to tower over and remain superior to other competing plants below. Our 10oz canvas shopper offers the same smooth appearance with its premium quality cotton and sturdy, durable weight.

Although a mid-range bag in our heavy canvas range, this bag earns its place as a top quality product and a firm favourite within the industry. We give to you, The Beech
